

Aims and Objectives

The Central Library is a nucleus in teaching-learning and research. It plays a vital role since its inception.

Aims

- To collect the reading material of concerned courses.
- To provide various library services and facilities to the users.
- To enhance quality of research.
- To preserve and conserve the collection in the library.

Objectives

- To acquire, organize and update library collection to support teaching – learning process.
- To encourage the students to read beyond the curriculum.
- To provide assistance to users for effective use of learning resources.
- To promote the learning habits among students.
- To motivate students for extensive use of reading material.
- To provide information to every reader.