He introduced Rayat Shikshan Sanstha as well as the college. He has described the objectives of the Sanstha. He has acknowledged the contribution of all the authorities of the Sanstha for its sustainable development during the last century. He has underlined the contemporary need of the academia to accept the new changes and challenges as well as the role of the Department in this respect. At last he appealed all of the delegate participants to have a solid discussion regarding the need of 'Introducing Film Studies in Curriculum'.

Dr. Yeshwant M.R. officially welcomed all the participants on behalf of the patrons of the Sanstha and the college. He has introduced the eminent resource persons to the audience including students, research scholars, faculties and experts from the films studies.

Dr. Rahul Kamble, Associate Professor from The English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad, the first resource person, focused on the different layers and prospects of introducing film studies for post graduate and under graduate students.

The next resource person, Dr. Ajay S. Sekher, Associate Professor from Shree Shankaracharya Sanskrit University, Kalady, Kerala, has underlined the outdated curriculum of Indian Universities that has been implemented by the British rulers during their rule. He cited the examples from his state that how the film studies have been incorporated in the syllabuses at the high school level. He has focused the interconnection among society, politics, economy, certain notions like caste, class, gender etc. that is reflected in the contemporary films. He agreed to the fact that how films are used for political propaganda.

Participants from various states have shown their interests in the subject while asking their quires and questions to the resource persons. The presidential best wishes by Advt. Bhagirath Shinde sahib, Vice-Chairman, Rayat Shikshan Sanstha were conveyed to the congregation. Mr. Dighe M.K. expressed vote of thanks for all the delegates who make the event a success.
