Book Reading

George, B. with Sims, P. True North: Discover Your Authentic Leadership

- George, B.; McLean, A. and Craig, N. Finding Your True North: A Personal Guide Students are required to read two books for this course. The first of them, True North: Discover Your Authentic Leadership, should be read in its entirety, preferably before the course begins, as we will be referring to its concepts throughout the course. The second book, Finding Your True North: A Personal Guide, will become your personal workbook that you will use each week to complete the individual exercises assigned that week. The Personal Guide is solely for the personal use of the individual student, and will not be turned in or graded at any point. However, students will be expected to verbally share the output of the exercises from the Personal Guide each week with the members of their LDG. Optional reading:
 - George, B. Authentic Leadership: Rediscovering the Secrets to Creating Lasting Value (especially the Introduction and Chapters 1-3)
 - Champy, J. and Nohria, N. The Arc of Ambition: Defining the Leadership Journey (Cambridge, MA: Perseus Books, 2000)
 - George, B. 7 Lessons for Leading in Crisis (Complementary copies will be provided to students at the start of the course.)
